

The Weekly Reporter

Inter-Cooperative Council – Ann Arbor, Michigan

Edition 911

This Saturday, June 7, 2008, Recruitment Committee will be hosting a huge garage sale at Vail Cooperative from 11 am to 4 pm.

Friday, June 6, 2008

Please donate things by this Saturday; you can drop them off anytime at the house.

We will be selling everything for a donation of 50 cents or more, OR you can fill up a paper grocery bag for only FIVE BUCKS! All proceeds will go to sending member of the ICC to this year's NASCO Action Camp.

Also—bring your house's best BAKED GOODS. Let's show each other our favorite recipes, as well as showing the community our baking skills.

12:30 pm – BARBEQUE!

You can have veggie dogs, hot dogs, vegan dogs, no dogs, soda, pop, soda pop, and/or chips. 5 bucks for a dog, chips, and pop!

LET'S MAKE THIS WORK AND HAVE LOTS OF FUN.

Reduce. Reuse. Recycle. Recruit.

In cooperation,

Marlee Cook-Parrott – VP of Recruitment/Vail House President

Pinecones – from the Board

To Mindy Steffan, Work Manager at Mich House. Achieves a good balance of firmness and friendliness; house looks really good.

To Egypt Covington, In-house president of Nakamura. Good reaction to the possible priority status of Nakamura.

To Devo: New boiler at Lester.

To Debby and Damian at Black Elk: The only two who helped Dani in the kitchen; and to Debby for coming to the board meeting.

To Shreyank Muralidhara: notifying those who received pinecones at the last meeting.

To Jim Jones: made a donation of two plants to Baker.

To Leigh Pillars: Linder Work Manager, because the house is stunning

To Audra Puchalski, food steward at Linder: food is healthy and good

To Aubrey diCuna: Rock Climbing Wall is awesome.

To Stefan Rozel: International student at Ruths who fixed the Guff computer so that it now has internet.

To John Baker from Linder: helped with Truth's rock wall.

To Dani Schumacher, Out-of-House President from Black Elk, for handling house drama

Write pinecones for congratulations, a compliment, or a job well done to anyone. They will be featured in the next issue of the Reporter. To have your pinecone printed, send it to icc.reporter@umich.edu

Hi all,

I didn't realize that our history video was on the ICC website. I just came across it today. If you haven't seen it, it's worth the 30 minutes. If you have seen it, you may want to watch it again, just to remember where we come from.

Come sing some close harmony! (Co-sponsored by the ICC)

Thursdays, 7:30-10 pm @ the ICC Ed center (behind Luther Co-op, 1510-1520 Hill St., Ann Arbor)

The local chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society invites members of the community who are curious or interested in barbershop quartet singing, to join us for our weekly chapter rehearsal.

Most of our arrangements are voiced for male ranges, though everyone is welcome to attend and/or participate. No prior musical experience is necessary.

Doors open at 7:30pm, with singing starting promptly at 8pm.
